New Concepts for Living, Inc. Holds Annual Picnic in Saddle Brook

(Rochelle Park, New Jersey)--September 20, 2007—New Concepts for Living, Inc. (New Concepts), a non-profit organization that works with people with developmental disabilities and their families throughout Bergen County, hosted its annual picnic over the summer at Saddle River County Park in Saddle Brook, New Jersey. A large gathering of one hundred people comprised of clients, families, and staff participated in festivities of face painting, enjoying good food, and even a visit by Mickey Mouse. The food for the picnic was donated by a grocery store.

About New Concepts

Twenty years ago, New Concepts was founded by a small group of parents concerned about the future of their sons and daughters with developmental disabilities. New Concepts is a community non-profit organization committed to people with disabilities and their families. Inspired by the vision of families and people with developmental disabilities, New Concepts enables people to realize their dreams and to achieve their individual potential through quality community programs and services that include housing, vocational and day program training, recreation, advocacy, and family education and support.
