

For Immediate Release: November 5, 2007

For further information contact: Joyce Luhrs, 201-592-9126, luhrsassocpress@rcn.com

New Concepts Disabled Children's Foundation Receives Donation from L&S Packing Company

(Rochelle Park, New Jersey)—The New Concepts Disabled Children's Foundation (NCDCF) announces that the non-profit organization has received a donation from L&S Packing Company, Inc. The donation of $2,985 was presented by Louis J. Scaramelli III, President of L&S Packing Company, Inc., and Jacqueline Scaramelli-Massaró, Vice President of L&S Packing Company, to Homer J. Cudia, Chairman, New Concepts for Living, Inc. (New Concepts) at the non-profits' joint board of trustees meeting. L&S Packing Company donates to the NCDCF a portion of the proceeds from the sale of its Paesana gourmet Italian specialty sauces that are sold in all Inserra ShopRite and select ShopRite stores located in New Jersey and New York.

"Over the past five years, L&S Packing Company, Inc. has been an ardent supporter of New Concepts. We are most appreciative of the donation and L&S Packing Company, Inc.'s continued support of our organization's mission to provide services and programming to people with disabilities and their families," said Homer J. Cudia.

The NCDCF cultivates ongoing revenue streams that enable New Concepts, a community non-profit organization based in Rochelle Park, New Jersey, to help people with developmental disabilities and their families obtain much needed services, as well as enhancing those currently offered. New Concepts was founded 20 years ago by a small group of parents concerned about the future of their sons and daughters with developmental disabilities.

About New Concepts Disabled Children's Foundation

New Concepts Disabled Children's Foundation (NCDCF) is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization committed to helping people with disabilities and their families. The NCDCF develops and organizes New Concepts for Living, Inc.'s (New Concepts) major fund-raising activities and establishes alliances and partnerships with other organizations, businesses, and individuals. The Foundation cultivates ongoing revenue streams that enable New Concepts to initiate new services that help families waiting for critically needed ones, as well as enhancing those currently provided. New Concepts Disabled Children's Foundation, New Concepts, and their partners work closely together to build community awareness about the organization's services, promote support, raise funds and create special events.

About New Concepts for Living, Inc.

Twenty years ago, New Concepts was founded by a small group of parents concerned about the future of their sons and daughters with developmental disabilities. New Concepts is a community non-profit organization committed to people with disabilities and their families. Inspired by the vision of families and people with developmental disabilities, New Concepts enables people to realize their dreams and to achieve their individual potential through quality community programs and services that include housing, vocational and day program training, recreation, advocacy, and family education and support. For further information about New Concepts, call 201-843-3427 or visit the organization's web site at www.ncfl.net.

###

PHOTO ATTACHED

Cutline.

Shown left to right

Homer J. Cudia, Chairman of New Concepts for Living, Inc., accepts on behalf of the New Concepts Disabled Children's Foundation a donation from L&S Packing Company, Inc.'s Vice President Jacqueline Scaramelli-Massaró and President Louis J. Scaramelli III.