New Concepts Disabled Children's Foundation Receives Contribution from Dumont's Knights of Columbus St. John's Council No. 1345

(Rochelle Park, New Jersey)— The New Concepts Disabled Children's Foundation (NCDCF), a non-profit, tax-exempt organization committed to helping people with disabilities and their families, announces that a contribution has been received from the Knights of Columbus St. John's Council No. 1345 based in Dumont, New Jersey. The Knights of Columbus St. John's Council No. 1345 donated $500 to the Foundation.

"The New Concepts Disabled Children's Foundation thanks the Knights of Columbus St. John's Council No. 1345 for their contribution. We depend on the generosity and involvement of organizations like the Knights of Columbus St. John's Council No. 1345. Their financial support helps New Concepts for Living, Inc. to provide a range of needed services for people with developmental disabilities and their families in Bergen County," said Homer J. Cudia, Chairman, New Concepts for Living, Inc. (New Concepts).

The NCDCF, with headquarters in Rochelle Park, New Jersey, cultivates ongoing revenue streams that enable New Concepts, a community non-profit organization, to help people with developmental disabilities and their families obtain much needed services, as well as enhancing those currently offered. New Concepts was founded 20 years ago by a small group of parents concerned about the future of their sons and daughters with developmental disabilities.
