New Concepts for Living Promotes Dayhan Villalobos Richards to Human Resources Representative

(Rochelle Park, New Jersey)—New Concepts for Living, Inc. (New Concepts), a non-profit, tax-exempt organization that services people with developmental disabilities and their families in Bergen County, announces that Dayhan Richards, nee Villalobos, has been named Human Resources Representative. Ms. Richards, a resident of Bergenfield, has worked with New Concepts for three years, and previously, she was the organization's receptionist/secretary.

In her new position, Ms. Richards' responsibilities include reviewing resumes and applications submitted to the organization and forwarding them to the appropriate department heads and facilitating the hiring process with new staff. In addition, she updates staff records, responds to employees' inquiries completing health insurance forms, and provides data entry.

Ms. Richards, nee Villalobos, emigrated as a child from Costa Rica to the United States and has lived since then in New Jersey. She has participated actively in the community volunteering with New Life Covenant Church in Teaneck by distributing clothes and food to homeless individuals. During the Christmas season, she has helped to make baskets for homeless or needy families.

In her spare time, she hikes, goes to the beach, and enjoys seeing nature.

About New Concepts for Living, Inc. (New Concepts)

Twenty years ago, New Concepts was founded by a small group of parents concerned about the future of their sons and daughters with developmental disabilities. New Concepts is a community non-profit organization committed to people with disabilities and their families. Inspired by the vision of families and people with developmental disabilities, New Concepts enables people to realize their dreams and to achieve their individual potential through quality community programs and services that include housing, vocational and day program training, recreation, advocacy, and family education and support.
